Unfavorable Report in House on Bill to Reduce License Fees to $415 in Towns Less Than 10,000-Senate Rejected Bill to Exempt Applicants for Renewal of Liquor Licenses From Advertising the Same-Reports of Proceedings in Both Branches of the Assembly Friday.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, March 23.—There was the average Friday session attendance in the house and, as is the rule, just as much, and perhaps a little more business was transacted than on any other session day. Leader Peasley's announcement on Thursday that there would be a Monday session but did not meet with general favor and when he announced that the plan had been abandoned, the announcement was greeted with applause. However, afternoon sessions will be held next week. The senate desk is cleared of business, but a deluge is expected for the house during the coming week. The leaders are still comident that final adjournment will be reached the

No Monday Session. Leader Peasley announced that, provided the members remained during the present day's session, and made inroad on the overburdened calendar, there would be no session on Monday.

The Counsel Bureau.

There was taken from the calendar an act to establish a legislative counsel bureau, which among other things would supplant the office of clerk of bills, now fitted by an official who has served as assistant clerk, clerk of the house and clerk of the senate. This was reported informally by the judiciary committee and Mr. Back of Killingly, spoke in support of the report of the committee. Mr. Corbett of Hartford spoke in favor of the bill, and the tendency of the state is to stick to old landmarks. The purpose of the bill was to expedite legislative business and was in keeping with the pusiness and was in keeping with the ecommendation of the American Bar ussociation. An assembly of this kind s unwieldy, he said, and there should be a commission to outline the work in advance. This scheme has been in operation in other states for twentyfive years and unsuccessfully, and therefore is not new. It is non-politi-cal and needed in this state, Mr. Curry of Lebanon was opposed

New London Assesors.

The committee on cities and boroughs made favorable report, on the bill printed in Thursday's Bulletin, which would provide for the appointment of assessors by the mayor of the state of the Supervision of Banks.

No Seat, No Fare. No Seat, No Fare.

The bill which provided that only half fare be exacted from a passenger on a trolley or steam car who is not provided with a seat, was taken from the calendar. Mr. Healey, of Waterbury, in advocating the bill said a person paid for transportation and seat and was furnished with half, that he showed pay for half only. The bill was rejected.

Defrauding Gas Companies.

The act concerning the defrauding of

The act concerning the defrauding of gas companies was amended, so as to include the gas that has passed through the meter, and water, or unlawfully used.

There was amendment to the act concerning joining persons in marriage, so that no public official or deputy shall, legally authorized to issue marriage licenses shall join in marriage under authority of a license issued by himself. The penalty is a fine of $50. The act also provides that all judges, justices of the peace, and ordained or licensed clergymen belonging to this state, or any other state, of the ministry, may join persons in marriage; and all marriages attempted to be celebrated by any other person shall be void. An amendment was offered that required such ministers to be a naturalized citizen. The Town Clerks Barred.

was offered that required such minlsters to be a naturalized citizen. The matter was discussed at length by Messrs. Smith, Rogers, Dillon, Peasley and Hennon. The latter spoke in strong opposition to the amendment as he, as a Catholic, considered marriaga clergyman who can talk their ow to become a citizen he should go back.

Mr. Healey said this was a matter that deserved careful consideration.

That the church and state were separate and there should be no interference the one with the other. It was easy to make a patriotic speech, but there was no cause for a special-eagle talk at this time and moved the pre-vious question on the ame timent. The mation prevailed and the amend-ment was rejected.

Disputed Tax Claim. An act was passed which provides that the board of control may state the tax payable to the state assessed collectible, and shall certify such abatement to the treasurer.

The house adjourned to 11.30 next Tuesday morning.

THE SENATE Decks Are Cleared for Action on Home Matters Next Week.

There was a brief session of the senate, Friday, the body playing a watchful waiting game, for business from the house, which will come in force next week.
